The Bazaruto Archipelago and Benguerra Island are a necklace of tropical islands, rimmed by white sandy beaches and coral reefs, set in the azure waters of the Indian Ocean. Largely unspoilt, the islands are an astonishing paradise of natural beauty, with gorgeous beaches, coral reefs and exotic marine life. Protected as part of a marine park, they are largely uncommercialised and perfect for diving, snorkelling, fishing and idyllic beach holidays. The exclusive island getaways featured on this page are just 2 hour's flight north of Johannesburg. Daily flights are available from Johannesburg and twice weekly flights are available from Kruger Mpumalanga International Airport (KMIA). The islands can be visited throughout the year. November to April is hot and humid with some rain, whilst May to October is dry with warm days (average 27°C) and cooler nights.
