ZAMBIA

Zambia offers unspoiled wilderness and game-rich national parks, as well as stylish safari camps and lodges. North of the magnificent Victoria Falls lies the famous South Luangwa National Park on the beautiful Luangwa River, and the untamed wilds of Kafue National Park. A perfect balance to these is the idyllic Lower Zambezi National Park, where river boat cruises and canoeing provide a very different wildlife viewing experience. For the more adventurous there are guided walking safaris available, as well as guided canoe trips down the Zambezi.

Highlights

Victoria Falls - The Smoke That Thunders!; wildlife-rich South Luangwa; Walking safaris; Kafue, the 2nd largest National Park in the world; Wildlife viewing by boat and canoe in the Lower Zambezi.

Game Viewing

Game viewing is best during the dry season from Jun-Oct.

Climate

There are 3 distinct seasons - cool and dry from May-Aug (23°-25°C), hot and dry from Sep-Nov (30°-40°C), and warm and wet from Dec-Apr (28°-35°C).

Norman Carr Safaris, founded by pioneer Norman Carr continues with his commitment to conservation, care for the local community, and quality guiding. They operate two permanent lodges, Kapani and Mchenja, as well as 3 seasonal bush camps. Combine Kapani or Mchenja with one of the bush camps, or immerse yourself in the wilderness, travelling on foot from one bushcamp to the next.

CAMPS AND LODGES

Kapani Lodge

This private lodge is situated on the banks of an ox-bow lagoon. Guests are accommodated in either 8 standard suites with spacious sitting area and overhead fans, or the lagoon house. There is a central lounge, open bar and dining area, library and swimming pool.

Mchenja Camp

Set on the banks of the Luangwa River, this lovely camp offers 5 comfortable, stylish tents under thatch, each with ensuite shower and bath. There is a small pool alongside the bar. Mchenja is a perfect combination with Kapani, or as the culmination of a walking safari.

Kakuli Bush Camp

This seasonal camp, at the confluence of the Luwi and Luangwa Rivers, is renowned for its game. Guests are accommodated in 4 spacious tents under thatch, each with an open-air bathroom. The tents and main lodge have stunning river views.

Luwi Bush Camp

Nesting under huge mahogany trees, Luwi has 4 thatched huts with polished mud floors. There is a small thatched bar and meals are served alfresco. As there are very few roads, the emphasis at Luwi is on walking activities.

Nsolo Bush Camp

Situated on a waterhole just 3 hours walk from Luwi Bush Camp, Nsolo has 4 rustic, open-fronted rooms, built on raised wooden platforms under a thatched roofs with bathrooms open to the stars above. There is an alfresco dining area and bar.

MALAWI EXTENSION

Malawi, the warm heart of Africa, is a land of mighty mountains, lush valleys, crystalline lakes and the third largest water body in Africa, Lake Malawi. The country's diverse ecology offers everything from elephants to orchids, and is protected within Malawi's 9 national parks and game reserves. Malawi has some of the friendliest people in Africa, with many opportunities to mix with the locals.

Highlights include walking safaris in Liwonde National Park - the most prolific wildlife area in Malawi, the remote, untouched upland area of Nyika National Park and Lake Malawi - famed for its abundance and diversity of freshwater fish species.

Its warm and welcoming nature, wonderful natural beauty and fascinating parks make Malawi a perfect add-on to a safari.
