MOROCCO

Morocco, land of mystery and romance, offers a profusion of historical, cultural and scenic wonders. Wander the narrow laneways of imperial Fes and Marrakech with their lavish palaces, ancient mosques and colourful souks. In the Atlas mountains the ruins of hilltop kasbahs (fortresses) rise above rocky gorges, whilst the sand dunes of the Sahara Desert are home to hardy Berber nomads. Moroccan summers can be very hot and winters very cold inland. The best time to visit is spring (mid-Mar to May) when the country is lush and green, or autumn (Sep to Nov) when the summer heat has eased. During Ramadan (mid-Aug to mid-Sep) most shops and restaurants are closed during the day.

Mamounia Hotel - Marrakech

Opened in 1923 in the heart of Marrakech Winston Churchill called it "one of the most beautiful hotels in the world". Set in idyllic 300 year old gardens the recently renovated Mamounia features 210 rooms and suites, 4 restaurants, 5 bars, fitness centre and spa.

La Sultana - Marrakech

This historic hotel is a complex of riads built around the Royal Palace and lavish 16th century tomb of the Saadian kings. Restored in perfect archaeological detail and furnished with exotic antiques, the riad has 28 guest rooms, restaurants, outdoor and indoor pools and spa.

Villa des Orangers - Marrakech

This beautiful Relais & Chateaux hotel is situated in the old city close to the Royal Palace. Scented by the orange trees which give it its name the villa offers 21 apartments and 6 deluxe rooms. Hotel features include restaurant, heated outdoor pool, boutique and spa.

Riad Fes - Fes

With spectacular views of the Medina and the Atlas Mountains, Riad Fes is renowned for its luxury, impeccable service and fine dining. The 26 suites and rooms have been superbly restored and elegantly furnished reflecting a combination of Moroccan architecture and contemporary style. Facilities include a traditional hammam, solarium, pool and 2 restaurants.

L'Heure Bleue Palais - Essaouira

Situated in the picturesque coastal town of Essaouira, the luxurious L'Heure Bleue Palais is perfectly located on the edge of the World Heritage listed Medina. The 35 beautifully appointed rooms are set around a colonial style interior courtyard. Facilities include a fine French/Moroccan restaurant, library, pool, billiard room and traditional hammam.
