

NORTHERN & EASTERN CAPE GAME RESERVES

3 days/2 nights
Lodges

The northern and eastern capes of South Africa offer diverse wildlife, stunning landscapes and luxurious lodges. Tswalu Kalahari, in the vast expanses of the Northern Cape, is South Africa's largest private game reserve and covers over 110,000 hectares. Here, amongst the incredible wilderness of the Southern Kalahari, guests can stay at the reserve's luxurious and exclusive private lodge, which is perfectly positioned to uncover the area's exceptional wildlife.

The Eastern Cape, with its rugged hills and semi-arid Karoo desert, has a number of excellent, malaria-free wildlife reserves, which make it a great safari destination for families. The acclaimed Kwandwe Private Game Reserve and beautiful Shamwari Game Reserve both offer luxury accommodation and very special gameviewing experiences.
