Walk with Giants

Before Zambia, we’d done six safaris throughout southern and East Africa. However, nothing could’ve prepared us for the thrill of walking through the South Luangwa wilderness – amongst both predators and prey.

ZAMBIA

Zambia offers unspoilt wilderness, game-rich national parks and an array of stylish camps and lodges. North of Victoria Falls lies the famous South Luangwa National Park, followed by the prolific North Luangwa National Park, both on the hippo-filled Luangwa River. In the south are the lush floodplains of the Lower Zambezi National Park. Aside from excellent 4WD gameviewing, these reserves offer a range of adventurous activities such as guided walking safaris and canoe trips down the Zambezi.

HIGHLIGHTS
