Day 1 Juneau - Embarkation

Board your vessel and meet your fellow passengers and crew before a welcome dinner D

Day 2 Tracy Arm / Stephen's Passage

This morning wake up to the beauty of Tracy Arm with its sheer granite walls, cascading waterfalls and drifting icebergs. Take a skiff excursion to get a closer look at the glacier. Your guide will explain how this remarkable landscape was formed. Traverse Stephens Passage keeping an eye out for humpback whales and other marine life. BLD

Day 3 Thomas Bay / Baird Glacier

Go into the wild today as you hike through the muskeg and mud in Alaska's backcountry. This glacial landscape shimmers with gold and quartz and the valley is a nesting hot-spot for Arctic terns. In the afternoon paddle along the bay's mossy cliff walls before a soak in the hot tub onboard. BLD

Day 4 Le Conte Glacier / Ideal Cove

Le Conte Glacier is the southernmost tidewater glacier in North America. Depending on the tides check out the icebergs resting on the mudflats by skiff or on foot. The forest-lined boardwalk trails of Ideal Cove are a joy to explore, or you can test your balance paddle boarding in the cove's quiet waters. BLD

Day 5 Kake / Frederick Sound

Meaning "opening of daylight" in the local Tlingit dialect, enjoy a morning of storytelling and dancing in the town of Kake. Depart for the Keku Islands and kayak in Saginaw Bay or hike in the pristine forests. Black bears are a common sighting along the shore. In the afternoon cruise through Frederick Sound where there is a good chance to spot humpback whales. BLD

Day 6 Baranof Island / Peril Strait

Today your Captain steers you through Chatham and Peril Straits. Go hiking through the untouched wilderness or slide into a kayak for an easy-going shoreline paddle. Navigate the waterways of Peril Strait and search for seals and seabirds.

Day 7 Sergius Narrows / Neva Strait

Dotted with hundreds of coves and uninhabited islands the western side of Baranof Island is ideal for kayaking, and a prime area for spotting sea otters. Explore the protected beaches and intertidal zone on foot keeping an eye out for bears. Enjoy a Farewell Dinner with the Captain and toast your voyage. BLD

Day 8 Sitka - Disembark

After breakfast, it's time for goodbyes and a transfer to the airport. B
