Un unravel Mexico's fascinating history in the states of Chiapas and Yucatan. The 16th century towns of San Cristobal de Las Casas and Merida feature classic Spanish architecture, whilst nearby villages are home to descendants of the ancient Maya. See some of the country's best archaeological sites, including Chichen Itza, Palenque and Uxmal.

Days 1/2 San Cristobal de Las Casas
Private airport transfer to San Cristobal de Las Casas, enjoying a boat trip en route (shared) in beautiful Sumidero Canyon. On Day 2 take a half day city tour of San Cristobal to see its cathedral, squares and churches. Then drive into the highlands to visit the traditional Mayan villages of San Juan Chamula and Zinacantan. B (day 2)

Days 3/4 Palenque
After breakfast, admire the enchanting Agua Azul Waterfalls comprised of over 500 cascades. Continue on to Palenque for overnight. On Day 4 enjoy a full day tour of Bonampak and Yaxchilan. Hidden in dense jungle, Bonampak was only discovered in 1946. Its colourful murals depicting Mayan life and mythology are amongst the finest in the country. Continue on by road and boat to reach the well-preserved riverside ruins at Yaxchilan. B

Days 5/6 Merida
Half day tour of Palenque, dating from the classic period (300 to 900 AD). Spectacularly located in jungle with views all the way to the Gulf Coast, it features a turreted palace and pyramid with exquisite reliefs. Later, transfer to the airport for your flight to Merida (not included), built over 450 years ago on top of an ancient Mayan city. On Day 6 visit Uxmal and Kabah. Uxmal is a UNESCO World Heritage Site known for its low palaces set around courtyard, decorated with a profusion of motifs depicting the long-nosed rain god Chaac. Kabah boasts the impressive Palace of the Masks. Return to Merida. B/BL
