ITINERARY

Day 1

Colombo

Arrival transfer to Uga Residence, a grand Victorian mansion that once welcomed the cream of Ceylon society.

Days 2-4

Anuradhapura

Morning Colombo city tour to see its bustling markets and gracious colonial buildings, before travelling to Ulagalla, a superbly restored historic residence offering stunning guest villas with private plunge pools. During your 3-night stay, visit the impressive dagobas and temples of Anuradhapura and admire the magnificent rock citadel at Sigiriya, built in the 5th century by a king who overthrew his own father. One afternoon, trek through a traditional Sri Lankan village for an insight into rural life. B

Days 5/6

Trincomalee

Head to Trincomalee, a breezy city on Sri Lanka's eastern coast, with a recorded history spanning some 2,000 years. "Trinco" is home to various interesting landmarks that bear testament to the importance of its natural deep water harbour, including the alluring Portuguese-built Fort Frederick and the tidy British war cemetery. Your accommodation is in the relaxed treehouse-themed Jungle Beach, which offers secluded guest cabins, a beautiful lagoon-like swimming pool and a wide range of activities including cooking classes and kite-making. B

Days 7/8

Kandy

Discover Sri Lanka's cultural capital – Kandy – a cool, compact city brimming with sights, the most remarkable being the Temple of the Tooth Relic, which houses a tooth that belonged to Buddha. Overnight at The Kandy House, a 19th century manor where modern luxury and age-old traditions seamlessly combine. B

Days 9/10

Haputale

Transfer to Thotalagala, a tea planter's bungalow turned boutique hotel with stupendous vistas over classic Sri Lankan hill country. Sip premium tea on the lawn, hike to Lipton's Seat or learn about the journey from leaf to cup at the Dambatenne Tea Factory. B

Days 11/12

Yala National Park

Depart for the country's most visited national park, set in the island's southeast. Enjoy four game drives in Yala, providing plentiful opportunities to observe Asian elephant, peacock and leopard in their natural habitat. Retire in the evening to your glamorous pavilion at Chena Huts, a stylish hideaway situated where jungle meets the Indian Ocean. BLD

Day 13

Colombo

Return to Colombo after a final morning combing the park for interesting animals. Overnight once again to the sumptuous Uga Residence. B

Day 14

Tour ends Colombo

Your trip concludes with a transfer to the airport.
