MOROCCO'S BLUE CITY

3 days/2 nights

From $1079 per person twin share*

Departs daily ex Casablanca

*Based on two people sharing, single prices on request.

INCLUSIONS

2 nights' accommodation on a B&B basis, transfers, meals and sightseeing as per itinerary.

In northern Morocco, Chefchaouen is one of the country's prettiest towns, renowned for its blue-white washed stone walls and cobblestone streets. The medina is small and uncrowded compared to the hustle and bustle of Fés and Marrakech, making it a joy to explore. In the centre of town is the picturesque Uta El Hammam Plaza shadowed by the red-hued Kasbah, an ancient walled fortress that contains a lovely garden and fascinating ethnographic museum. The beautifully decorated Riad Cherifa sits overlooking the town, a mere 600 metres from the ancient Kasbah.

ITINERARY

Day 1 Chefchaouen

Today you will be met and transferred by road to Riad Cherifa in Chefchaouen.

Day 2 Chefchaouen

This morning enjoy a walking tour of Chefchaouen, visiting the ancient Kasbah. Explore the ethnographic museum which houses numerous pieces of clothing including the traditional djellaba and visit a local oil mill. B

Day 3 Tour Ends

After breakfast transfer to Casablanca. Tour ends. B

ESSAOUIRA EXTENSION

Visit the famous port city of Essaouira on this 3 day extension from Marrakech. Founded in the 18th century by the Portuguese, the city was rebuilt and fortified to take advantage of the Trans-Saharan trade route. The fortifications are a fascinating mix of Portuguese and Moroccan architecture, whilst the city is renowned for its pretty whitewashed houses, art galleries and markets. Explore this vibrant city with your local guide and see the famous spice souks, jewellery markets and carpentry workshops.

3 day/2 night tour cost from: $633 p.p. twin staying at the Villa De L'ò (standard room).

KASBAH DU TOUBKAL

This community built lodge, 60km from Marrakech in the Atlas Mountains came to fruition when two British hikers came across the ruined building in 1989. Completely refurbished, it is now one of National Geographic's Unique Lodges of the World, a fusion of Berber and European cultures. The hotel has 14 beautiful rooms all with terraces and gardens that give incredible views of the Atlas peaks. The restaurant provides a genuine Berber experience offering authentic healthy meals. There is also a traditional hammam (steam bath) and guided walking excursions to enjoy.
